

UNION PRIDE

What is UNION PRIDE?

In 2007, a number of Victorian trade unions came together to participate in the Midsumma festival under a combined banner – UNION PRIDE.

We wanted to show that trade unions support the workplace rights of all Victorian workers and that our unions actively support our G.L.B.T.I members.

Plus, participation gave G.L.B.T.I workers the chance to show that they are also proud unionists and to celebrate their solidarity!

This years Victorian Pride March is on Sunday 1st February 2009!!!

In 2007 and 2008, unionists from a variety of trade unions marched under the combined UNION PRIDE banner in support of GLBTI workers.

If you want to be part of this years march come to the corner of Lakeside Drive and Fitzroy Street, St Kilda on Sunday 1st February.

We will assemble at 4.30pm, with the march starting at 5.00pm sharp.
We are entry number 44 in the march.

Feel free to fly your union banner and wear your union colours!

For more information about UNION PRIDE contact Sarah Rogan on sarah.rogan@alliance.org.au or Wil Stracke on wstracke@asuvic.com