

Don't be too polite girls!

WOMEN'S RIGHTS CHARTER

It is time to demand our rights at work, at home and in the community for the women of Australia. Has your workplace and community group signed on? By signing this Charter you support the following rights for women....don't be too polite girls!

1. All women must be treated with dignity and respect.
2. All women must be free to choose to actively belong to their union.
3. Women must be equal in all places – home, work and the community.
4. All women should and must receive equal pay and the right to access affordable child care.
5. Women have the right to have unpaid work recognised and valued.
6. All women must have the equal right to access affordable education and training.
7. All women should live and work free from violence.
8. All women should have flexible work practices that support their current and future careers and/or retirement prospects.
9. All women must have true reproductive rights.
10. Women must be free from discrimination in all its forms with particular with regard to their sexuality, disability, age and lifestyle choices.

SIGN HERE:

